HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1890.

TELEGRAMS.

PORTUGAL AND ENGLAND.

LONDON, January 13th. Portugal, in reply to Britain's ultimatum, says that she yields to a superior power, reserving her rights to have the delimitation of territory debated hereafter.

This decision of the Ministry caused a riot, and the mob smashed the windows of the houses of the Ministers and the British Consul, clamouring at the same time for their resignation.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE P. & O. S. N. Co.'s extra steamer Lombardy left Bombay for this port yesterday at 4 p.m.

THE members of the Choral Society will meet in the City Hall, on Monday next, when the first rehearsal of Gault's Cantata Ruth will take place.

MEMBERS of the Cricket Club who intend going to the dance on the 27th, or inviting friends, had better send in their names to the Secretary early.

THE Superintendent of the P. & O. S. N. Co. courteously informs us that the steamship Peninsular, with the next English mail, left Singapore for this port at 4 p.m. yesterday.

THE public meeting to consider in what manner the memory of our late Colonial Secretary, Dr. Stewart, shall be perpetuated, will take place to-morrow afternoon, at 4.30, in the City Hall.

WE are informed by the agents (Messrs. Russell & Co.) that the E. and A. S. S. Co.'s steamer Atride left Port Darwin for this port yesterday, and may be expected to arrive on the 24th inst.

AN English scientist says that if we were to visit the moon we should find the days and nights a fortnight in length, and if we "survived" the scorching during the day we should certainly be frozen to death during the ensuing night.

THE commercial honesty of a foreign firm, Messrs. Mühl & Co., has recently been rudely attacked by a Peking censor, and the Chinese officials, it seems, were instructed not to deal any more with that firm. It now appears that an Imperial Edict has been obtained by which complete satisfaction is given to the outraged honour of the foreign firm, inasmuch as the above order has been expressly rescinded as unwarrantable. Messrs. Mühl & Co. may congratulate themselves on being well out of a bad bargain, and it is satisfactory for foreign merchants in general that the commercial honour of one of their number has been thus amply vindicated.

IT will be remembered that nine men were arrested by Acting Inspector Hanson at Shaikwan, in the early part of this month, on a charge of being concerned in a piratical expedition, the junk they were in being armed with all the materials necessary for such a foray. Four of these were discharged yesterday at the Police Court, the charges against them having been withdrawn. Out of the five remaining, two were defended by Dr. Ho Kai, this morning.

The master of a junk that had been a victim of the pirates, however, appeared at the Police Court and gave evidence, identifying some of the prisoners. They were all committed for trial at the next Criminal Session.

THE saying "Go thou and do likewise" was amply illustrated this morning at the Police Court, when two men were charged by Edward Griffin, an overseer in the Public Works Department, with having deposited, yesterday, a quantity of rubbish in the harbor. The defence was that they had done so because everybody had been in the habit of doing the same thing, and, moreover, the defendants contended that they had done no harm, inasmuch as they were only assisting in a manner the Praya Reclamation scheme. Mr. Robinson, who tried the case, apparently saw the force of this reasoning, for he discharged one of the defendants with a caution, and fined the other only fifty cents, with the alternative of three days hard labor.

SOME time ago a Chinese firm on the Praya shipped to this port a quantity of myrrh, used for medicinal purposes by Celestial followers of Aesculapius, but on taking delivery six packages, worth about $200, were found to be missing.

Detective-sergeant McIver, however, this morning recovered the missing packages, which were seen in as many deer-skins with the hair on, and which he found in cargo-boat No 1278 at West Point, near Jardine's Wharf. There was only one man in the boat at the time McIver stepped on board, and as he looked as if he wanted to decamp the detective immediately arrested him, and brought him and the "loot" before Mr. Robinson at the Police Court. The man, however, obstinately denied any knowledge as to how the stolen articles had found their way to his boat, stating that he was only a joki on board, and that his master, the owner of the cargo-boat, was the only one who knew about the matter. His Worship therefore remanded the case in order that the energetic detective might have time to arrest the real thief. After the case had been remanded a Parsee appeared on the scene, stating that the myrrh belonged to him. He was told, unofficially, that he had to prove ownership before he could obtain it.

THE petty officers of the Fleet gave a very enjoyable smoking concert to their many friends here, last night, in the Seamen's Club. About two hundred were present, including Admiral Sir Nowell Salmon, V.C., Commodore Church, R.N., Captain May, Captain Sir W. Wiseman, &c. A tremendous programme was gone through, under the organization of Mr. Fitzgerald, of the Albatross, and Mr. Egerton, vice. Among other items were an excellent recitation in dialect, by Capt. Sir W. Wiseman, a couple of vociferously applauded comic songs by Lieut. Hopkins, of Sloperian fame, and songs generally by the Rev. H. K. Moore, of the Imperialist, Lieut. Hewitt, Sergt. Major Williamson, (1st Regiment) Staff-sergeant Mills, Q. M. Sergt. Sebright, Messrs. Fitzgerald, Dado, &c. A very pleasing quintette "Die Wacht am Rhein" was rendered by five stalwart guests belonging to the Illite, another Johnny from the Fatherland asking indulgence because, (pointing to his throat) he was "sick inside." Towards the end Admiral Salmon said a few words, saying that among the military guests he recognised many faces that he had seen at the Cape, and hoping that many similar reunions would take place. The evening was wound up with highly enthusiastic cheers for everything and everybody.

SUPREME COURT.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

(Before Mr. A. G. Wills, Acting Puisne Judge.)

AN "OFFICER'S" DEFENCE.

Lieut. Saywell, of H.M.S. Victor Emanuel, was sued by the Hongkong Hotel for $75.20, on chits signed by him. Mr. Hastings appeared for the plaintiff Company, and Mr. Webber was for the defendant, who was not in attendance.

Mr. Roberts, the manager of the Hongkong Hotel, produced the chits, which were for drinks, etc., supplied to defendant.

Cross-examined—No one of them was for more than forty shillings. He did not know the defendant personally, and could not swear that he had signed them.

His lordship—I am prepared to hold that they are unless the defendant comes here and denies it.

Mr. Webber—There is the other point, my lord; none of them are for liquor to the value of 40s.

His lordship—Do you set up that defence? If you do you must point out under what section.

Mr. Webber replied that he did set it up. It was common law.

His lordship asked if defendant was a seaman?

Mr. Webber—He is an officer in Her Majesty's Navy.

His lordship—Is he a traveller?

Mr. Hastings contended that he was not.

His lordship—Well, what have you to say to this defence?

Mr. Hastings—Do I understand that it is being raised?

Mr. Webber—I have made certain offers.

His lordship—Are you going to raise this defence in all the other actions?

Mr. Webber replied that he knew of no others.

Mr. Hastings—if judgment is consented to the matter will not be pressed.

Mr. Webber referred to consent.

Mr. Hastings—The defendant is an officer in Her Majesty's navy, and I may inform you that he holds the rank and position of a gentleman. It has been held by your lordship that he has had these goods, and that these receipts are signed by him. He has not come here to deny it. If this action had been quite untenable, and had been liable to be dismissed with costs, still, I am instructed to say, my clients would have considered it their duty to bring it before the Court and to show the defendant up in his true colors, in order that the people of Hongkong, who were likely to give him credit might be warned of the sort of man he was. Therefore, even if this action is liable to be dismissed with costs, still we should have brought the case here to give publicity to it. But if your lordship will look over the chits you will see that they are not all for drinks.

His lordship—Let me look at them. (After examining some) Well, the only thing is—I cannot go through them now.

Mr. Hastings—I have been through them, and they include chits for billiards, money lent, meals, and cigars and cigarettes, and if you will ask your clerk to go through them he will see that the amount to which we are entitled is about $30.

His lordship—My clerk need not go through them—cannot Mr. Roberts prove that? I must have it on oath.

Mr. Hastings—I have been through the chits, and am prepared to say—

His lordship—Have you got the exact amounts.

Mr. Hastings—I have got the totals.

His lordship—I shall certainly help you in any way I can.

Mr. Hastings then entered the witness-box, and stated that he had examined the chits, and extracted those which referred to billiards, money lent, meals, and cigarettes, and the total amounted to $39.65. The balance was for drinks.

Mr. Webber—I declare that is quite true.

Mr. Hastings then resumed his place, and continued that there is no doubt with regard to the balance that it is open to the defence to say whether such a defence is creditable to an officer in Her Majesty's navy and a "gentleman." If you are unable to give us judgment for the balance I will ask for judgment for $39.65, with immediate execution.

Mr. Webber—This defence would never have been raised if the terms offered by the defendant had been accepted; he was only too anxious to pay the amount—he was willing to do it, but he was unable, so he offered terms to the plaintiff. He offered security for the debt, but instead of that they simply wished to rush the matter and force immediate payment. We simply raise this defence in self-protection—if time had been given, as we requested, the whole amount would have been paid before the end of March, and we have every intention of doing so even if judgment is not given a instant. It is absurd of Mr. Hastings to talk about this defence being set up for the purpose of evading the debt—he will pay even if your lordship does not give judgment against him. As to the publicity, that only shows my friend's ignorance, because this defence can only be raised with respect to liquors.

Mr. Hastings—With regard to the "rushing" the matter, I may say that these chits date from February last, a whole year, and repeated demands have been made for payment, but without any response whatever, I am very much surprised that the defendant could have found any solicitor in this colony to raise such a defence for him.

His lordship gave judgment for $39.65, and costs, and granted immediate execution.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

A meeting of the Legislative Council was held this afternoon. There were present: His Excellency the Governor (Sir William des Vaux); the Acting Colonial Secretary (Mr. A. Lister); Mr. H. E. Woodhouse, Acting Colonial Treasurer; Mr. S. Brown, Surveyor-General; Mr. W. M. Deane, Captain Superintendent of Police; Mr. A. J. Lench, Acting Attorney-General; Messrs. P. Kyrie, Wong Shing, C. P. Chai, A. P. MacEwen, J. J. Kerwick, (unofficial members) and Mr. A. Seth, Clerk of Councils.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

The following votes, recommended by His Excellency, were referred to the Finance Committee, on the motion of the Acting Colonial Secretary—$4,187, for the roads at Kowloon (re-vote); $250, gratuity to Mr. Bruce-Shepherd, for compiling an index of the streets, houses, numbers, and lease-hold of the city.

THE OBSERVATORY COMMISSION.

Mr. MacEwen—I beg to ask when it is the intention of the Government to appoint a Commission to inquire into the working of the Observatory?

His Excellency—The hon. member has only just given me notice of the question, but I thought fit to waive the notice, as there is no objection to answering it at once. It has been the intention of the Government for the last three months to appoint a Commission, but there have been difficulties in getting the best possible Commission. However, they have been overcome. The Commission will consist of the Hon. Mr. Deane, Captain Superintendent of Police, (Chairman) and I believe you have consented to serve, Mr. MacEwen. Then there will be Capt. Greenfield, R.N., Mr. B. Baker, R.N., the Harbor Master, and Mr. Ede. The object of the Commission will be to inquire as to how the Observatory may be made better to serve the public purposes for which it was instituted in this Colony.

THE SANITARY BOARD.

The Acting Attorney-General moved the first reading of a Bill to appoint an additional member on the Sanitary Board. He said that the object of the Bill was to empower the Governor to appoint Mr. Chadwick as a member of the Sanitary Board, as constituted by the Public Health Ordinance.

The Acting Colonial Secretary seconded.

His Excellency—Mr. Chadwick has been sent out here at my request, by the Secretary of State, to assist the Colony generally on questions of drainage, to which has been added the question of the distribution of the water-supply. He will for some months superintend the works personally, and after his retirement as Superintendent of works, return to England, coming out again only occasionally, as required. I am inclined to think, however, that the work will necessitate his being here at all events for a considerable time, in the first instance, and I think his experience will be exceedingly valuable to us on the Sanitary Board, in various matters in which his experience has been great and unquestionable. For that reason I propose to add him to the Board during the period of his stay, and this Ordinance has been introduced for that purpose. I do not know that there is anything further to say—I cannot conceive of any harm being done by it, and possibly my experience may turn out correct. Unless there is any objection I should be glad, as my time is short, to pass the Bill through all its stages to-day, but I shall at once give way if anyone has any more business.

The Standing Orders were then suspended.

The Acting Attorney-General moved the second reading, saying that the members of the Sanitary Board themselves thought that Mr. Chadwick's presence would be of great assistance.

The Bill then passed its second and third reading.

A FORMALITY.

The Acting Attorney-General moved the first reading of a Bill entitled "An Ordinance for the incorporation of the Provisional General in Hongkong, of the Society of the Missionary Enterprise."

He said that it was introduced to enable the Society to hold and deal with their property with greater security.

First reading passed.

THE PROTECTION OF FEMALES.

The Acting Attorney-General moved the first reading of a Bill entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Protection of Women and Girls Ordinance 1889." The object was to define more clearly the powers of the Registrar-General respecting the closing of houses that had been twice declared unlicensed or unregistered.

First reading passed.

The Council then adjourned. A meeting of the Finance Committee was afterwards held.

LIFE ON A BLUE-NOSE BARQUE.

A Marine Court held this morning at the Harbor Office, before Commander Rumsey, R.N., Harbor Master, Wm. Brown, second mate, and Mr. Phil, James Smith, J. Pendergast, P. S. B., J. Butterland, M. Shaw, Charles Kottmann, A. Buckhaus, J. Wheaton, Henry Hendrickson, Axel Torsson, William Lindsay, and George J. Hanson, seven of the American ship William H. Lincoln, were charged by M. T. Dally, master of the ship, with disobedience of orders on Monday last.

The complainant said that the men were all shipped at Yokohama. On Monday morning, when in Hongkong harbor, they refused to obey the orders of himself, and the first mate, when told to go to work, and demanded to see the American Consul. He allowed two of them (Lindsay and Torsson) to go, and the Consul ordered them to return to the ship. One of them did so, but the other did not. Yesterday, again, they were all before the U. S. Consul, and he ordered them on board, but they did not go on board.

William Brown, the second mate, stated:—I did not refuse duty to go to the Consul, and I said I would not work until I saw him.

The other defendants all set up the same plea of wishing to see the American Consul, and on being refused them by the master, they had in consequence struck work.

Commander Rumsey then offered all the defendants the option of returning on board to work or going to jail. With the exception of J. Wheaton, who declined to say whether he would return to his duty or not, the whole of the defendants refused point blank to return to their duty, and so were sentenced to seven days' hard labor each.

At this point his Worship, for some reason or other, re-opened the case, and cancelled his decision, saying that he would remand the case until to-morrow morning for the production of the ship's articles, which were in the hands of the U. S. Consul, having been deposited with him by Capt. Dally.

THE EMBEZZLEMENT BY A SHROFF.

The remanded case of the shroff of Ho Tim, who is charged with the embezzlement of $1,100, was again before Mr. Robinson, at the Police Court this afternoon. The prisoner, who was represented by Mr. Webber, acknowledged the debt. The prosecutor said that the prisoner was secured in a bond of $1,000, of which he had paid $500, the rest being secured by a promissory note given by his surety. Under cross-examination by Mr. Webber, the prosecutor stated that the amount embezzled was a general deficiency, and so far as he could see at the moment there had been no false entries made in the prisoner's books.

Mr. Webber then referred to a similar case, in which a clerk in England who received monies for a firm had been discharged from the accusation of embezzlement. He contended that this case was a civil matter, and not a criminal one. The prisoner had accounted for all the money he had received for his master, but he could not pay it in just then. If the prosecutor treated the matter in a criminal light, his receiving $500 as part payment of the debt was compounding a felony. He therefore asked that the prisoner be discharged, and the prosecutor be left to seek his remedy in a civil court.

Mr. Robinson said that Mr. Webber had made out a very good case, and that under any circumstances he would have allowed the plea set up by the defence, but there were two points which inclined him to decide otherwise in that case—first, when the shroff was asked for the money he had collected for rent, he stated to his master that he had not yet collected it, although the complainant knew that it had been paid; and secondly, that the case differed from the case quoted by Mr. Webber, inasmuch as the prisoner had admitted misappropriating the money, for purposes connected with his own business. He therefore adjourned the case until to-morrow afternoon in order to enable the tenants of certain houses, to learn whether they had paid the monies referred to or not. Bail was refused from $3,000 to $1,000, in two sureties of $1,000 each.

CANTON.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CANTON, January 14th.

The French Consulate, under the administration of M. Imbault-Sart, the French Consul is gradually being placed in a condition second only to the British, and promises to outvie the older Consulate by the time it is built over, in the arrangement of its roads, its system of drainage, and the character of its buildings. The station for the French municipal police has been completed, and by an early mail an efficient staff of gendarmes is expected from France. Under the careful superintendence of the French Consul, and Captain Guillet, of the French gun-vessel Viper, the brigandages of the late on the French Consulate have been marked off.

The agreement between Mr. Wynn and the Mint authorities has been extended for one year. The Mint is now going to be utilized by the Canton Government as a central residence for the legal and scientific staff of the new Technical College which the late Viceroy established at Whampoa. Already Mr. Groom, Professor of Botany, has arrived, and is in residence, and some five other Professors are shortly expected from England. The staff of the proposed college will be essentially English.

The Kersine Oil monopoly has been let by the present Viceroy to a new syndicate that "knew not Joseph," for a sum of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars, so we are likely to have a considerably higher tax on this most necessary article.

The present acting Governor has evidently been studying the "Arabian Nights" and the doings of the Caliphs of Bagdad. In "ye olden time," for, disguised as a mendicant, he went recently to worship at the great Temple in the centre of the city near the Yamen, and had practical experience of the enormous amount of blackmail levied on the devout. Upon returning to his Yamen, and after careful investigation, it was discovered that some of the principal city officials were interested in this little "squeeze," and they have all (including a Maistrato) been suspended from office pending reference to Peking, consequently great lamentation and consternation prevail. The acting Governor is said to be a particularly clever-handed official, and to be above corruption. He was certainly shown himself to be independent in character both towards the Yamen and the Yat Yat. His contempt for the Viceroy Chang Chih-tung was pretty well marked for a Chinese official, and considering their relative positions.

The work of removing the Black rock barrier is in progress, and it is expected that the native holidays. It cannot be doubted, from the movements already made, that during this year a great impetus will be given by the authorities of this Province to mining industries upon foreign principles, neither will it be found far in the back ground when the Chinese new year comes round again.

THE NEWSPAPER PRESS OF THE WORLD.

A large number of statistics have been collected in connection with the Paris Exhibition, and of these probably the most interesting are those which deal with the total number of journals published in the whole world; these have been collected by La Nature. The facts given show that Germany has the largest number of journals, the number of periodicals in Europe these numbering 5,000, of which 800 are dailies. Journals devoted to special religious, dogmas, creeds, and scientific theories abound more in this than in any other country. The oldest German journal is the Gaule'sche Posten of Frankfurt, founded in 1616; the most widely circulated, the Berliner Tageblatt, issues but 55,000 copies. After Germany comes England, which publishes over three thousand newspapers, 800 of which are dailies. France follows with a nearly equal number, of which only one-quarter are dailies. Italy holds the fourth rank by publishing 1,400 journals, 200 of which appear at Rome, 140 at Milan, 120 at Naples, 94 at Turin and 70 at Florence. Of these, 170 are dailies. In Austria-Hungary there are 1,200 journals, of which 150 are dailies. So far as other countries are concerned, Spain follows with 850 and Russia with 800, 200 of the latter appearing at St. Petersburg and 75 at Moscow. In Greece journals are proportionately numerous, every little market town and village having one. Athens publishes 54, all of which are dailies. In Switzerland there are 450 journals published, and Belgium and Holland furnish an almost equal number. In Sweden, Norway, and Portugal journalism is but little cultivated, while in Turkey it is quite active. In all Europe is credited with over 20,000 journals.

Turning to Asia, the figures show that here no fewer than 3,000 newspapers are issued, most of which appear in Japan and the British Indies. China is very poorly supplied, having but the Kung-Pao (official journal, Peking), which issues three editions a day on paper of different colors; and one journal at Shanghai and one in Corea. Japan, on the
